Selection Criteria and Process

Applicants should possess the passion and dedication for the arts/sports with good self-discipline. We are looking for students who:

- Are proficient in playing instruments/singing/dancing/acting/sports and are motivated to continually upgrade their performance/sporting skills;
- Are responsible individuals and are motivated and disciplined to achieve excellence;
- Possess a positive attitude; and
- Are good team-players who will contribute actively to the Performing Arts/Sports CCAs in the school.

Meeting all criteria does not guarantee the student will be shortlisted/given an offer.

Only short-listed applicants will be contacted by the school for an audition/trial and interview. Short-listed applicants will go through an audition/trial, Physical Ability Test/Sports Technical Skills Test and/or an interview to assess her suitability.

The details of DSA Selection Criteria and Process will be made available on the school website by 7 May 2024. Once an applicant is shortlisted, she will be given more information on the requirements of the audition/trial and details of the skills test by the school. You will receive notification from the school by 25 Aug 2025, if your child has been shortlisted to undergo Direct School Admission (DSA) selection. All applicants will receive their application outcomes between 25 Aug and 4 Sep 2025.
